DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's amendment and accompanying remarks filed January 21, 2008 are acknowledged.
2. Applicant's summary of the interview with SPE Milton Cano dated May 7, 2008 is acknowledged.
3. The present office action is in response to the amendment filed January 21, 2008.
4. Examiner acknowledges cancelled claims 13-16.
5. The rejection of claims 13 and 16 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Tokito et al., U.S. Patent Number 6,416,887 is rendered moot due to applicant's amendment.

Double Patenting

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164

Art Unit: 1794

USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

7. Claims 17 and 18 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 4 of copending Application No. 10/525,198. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the co-pending application recites a compound with the structure

. Claim 4 of the co-pending application recites that X<sub>2</sub> can be a silylene groups, which is generic and would encompass the spiro compounds of present claims 17-18.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed January 31, 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that the co-pending application does not recite spiro compounds that are presented by the compounds in the claims of the present application. Claim 4 of the co-pending application recites that  $X_2$  can be a silylene compound, which is generic and includes the spiro compounds of the claims of present application. The rejection is maintained.

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
